Dear Students

Developer Student Clubs powered by Google Developers in association with the CS Department is organising a Developer meetup on 21st September 2019 [9 AM - 1 PM].

We are bringing developers together from all around the city to have fun and to attend sessions on different technologies to kickstart their journey in tech.

The real value lies in the exposure that you get, the tech nerds you meet and the fun we all will have together.
